

TRAINING COURSE CALENDER

During this challenging time, we would like to support you in your daily business. KLINGER FLUID CONTROL offers online training courses for 2024 where new employees as well as experienced colleagues can build or refresh their knowledge about KFC products, applications and industries.

KLINGER FLUID CONTROL defines a training program on fixed dates for 2024. Below you can see the different training modules as well the course date, where potential learners can easily participate. The training courses will presented online via Microsoft TEAMS and it is simple to subscribe.

Please do your registrations at least one week before the requested course date via email to Gerhard Gruber. You can find the contact details below. After registration, you will receive invitation including the link for Microsoft TEAMS.
